The El Paso Police Department (EPPD) is a respected and trusted law enforcement agency that has served the El Paso community for over 150 years. Moments in Time: A Chronological History of the El Paso Police Department - The City is a comprehensive and engaging book that chronicles the fascinating history of the EPPD.

From its humble beginnings in 1873 to its present-day status as a modern and professional law enforcement agency, the EPPD has played a vital role in the development of the City of El Paso. Moments in Time tells the story of the men and women who have served in the EPPD, the challenges they have faced, and the contributions they have made to the community.

The book is divided into five parts, each of which covers a different era in the history of the EPPD. Part 1, "The Early Years (1873-1900)," tells the story of the EPPD's founding and its early years of operation. Part 2, "The 20th Century (1901-1950)," chronicles the EPPD's growth and development during the first half of the 20th century. Part 3, "The Post-World War II Era (1951-1970)," examines the EPPD's role in the post-World War II era, including its involvement in the civil rights movement and the Vietnam War.

Part 4, "The Modern Era (1971-2000)," covers the EPPD's transformation into a modern and professional law enforcement agency. Part 5, "The 21st Century (2001-Present)," examines the EPPD's role in the 21st century, including its response to the September 11th terrorist attacks and the war on terror.

Moments in Time is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the history of the El Paso Police Department and the City of El Paso. It is a well-written and informative book that is sure to captivate readers of all ages.
