In this groundbreaking new book, historian John Smith has collected the words of the men and women who lived through the most pivotal moments in American history. From the founding fathers to the civil rights leaders, from the soldiers who fought in the Revolutionary War to the women who marched for suffrage, these are the voices that have been silenced for too long.

Through their words, we learn about the hopes and dreams of the American people, their struggles and sacrifices, and their unwavering belief in the promise of America. This is a history of the United States that is both inspiring and heartbreaking, a story that will forever change the way we think about our country.
